LINICK CONSULTING TO FOCUS ON SMALL BUSINESS ISSUES

Linick Consulting Helps Small Businesses
Get their Books and their Offices Organized

Alameda, CA - October 10, 2003 — Jody Linick announces the opening of a new consulting firm in Alameda. Linick Consulting offers bookkeeping and organizational services to sole proprietors and small businesses.

“We offer personal service to private companies and individuals,” said Jody Linick, the company’s founder. She has fifteen years of experience in project management, office organization and bookkeeping.

“Small businesses are our business,” Jody Linick said. “At Linick Consulting, small companies and sole proprietorships, with their unique challenges, are our chief concerns.”

Linick Consulting offers QuickBooks® bookkeeping and office organizational services, as well as website services (such as website creation, registration with search engines, and bulk email services to client lists) and discount long distance phone service. Linick Consulting has teamed up with other professionals in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties to offer a wide range of professional services including graphic design, digital photography, media copying, and mobile notary public services.

About the Owner

Jody Linick graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of California, Santa Barbara with a Bachelor’s degree in Sociology and French Literature. She has worked with such companies as Tall Tree Systems, Mother’s Cake & Cookie Co., the BSN Groupe (now Danone), Keebler Company, The Clorox Company, ALTA, Inc. and Initiate Systems, Inc.
